

Company Description: Located in the Greater Charlotte metro area, Aqualine has over 23 years of industry experience in the water management field. Aqualine's success in the management of cooling towers, steam boilers, closed loop systems, and process water is demonstrated through their continuing relationships with clientele across the country.

- Aqualine is in growth mode
- Tight team atmosphere
- Operating in the GREEN/environmental industry

Position Description: Water Management Consultant

- Responsible for the profitable management of existing practice by maintaining and growing existing practice
- Project Management responsibilities including:
 - New Construction – Coordination, delivery, installation, startup and certification of water management program and equipment
 - Client Base – Provide consultative services and analytical testing | reporting for maintenance of existing HVAC and process water management systems
- Keeping current clients abreast of the latest technology offerings
- Recommend technical initiatives to enhance sales activity
- Assist in new product rollout – testing and evaluation
- Support training program development for new hires

Position Details:

Location: Charlotte, NC

Travel Requirements: New employees will initially work out of the Davidson office in order to complete initial training. Employees will then travel to client locations via company car. Employee will be authorized to travel directly from their residence to customer locations. Most travel will be same day.

Shift Work: N/A

Supervisory: No

Requirements:

- 4 year degree in science or engineering or 2 year degree with 7 years work experience in related field
- Excellent working knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite
- Knowledge of health/safety/hazmat issues relating to chemicals/equipment
- Excellent written and verbal skills required across all functional business units
- Proficient in reading plans/specifications

Career Progression: Upward mobility and leadership potential – Run your own division. As a small yet growing company Aqualine fosters and relies on a team environment. Consequently, strong performers with strong leadership potential can soon find themselves in a leadership position managing their own consulting team.

Benefits: Health/Dental, 401(k) plus matching, Education Allowance, Company Car, Expense Account

If you are interested in becoming an Aqualine team member, please email your resume to hr@aqualine.net. For more information about Aqualine, please visit our website at <http://www.aqualine.net>